Vienna, July 3. N. S.

THE Imperial Troops in Hungary consist of 202 Squadrons, 75 Battallions, and 59 Companies of Grenadiers, and are divided into four Bodies, viz. 64 Squadrons, 24 Battallions, and 19 Companies of Grenadiers at Semlin, under the Command of Felt Marshal Seckendorff. At Vipalanka, under M. Schmettau, General of the Artillery, 82 Squadrons, 23 Battallions, and 28 Companies of Grenadiers. In Transylvania, under the Command of General Wallis, 33 Squadrons and 13 Battallions. And at Gradisca in Croatia, under the Command of Prince Hildburgshausen, 23 Squadrons, 15 Battallions, and 12 Companies of Grenadiers. In these Lists the Saxon Troops, which consist of 6000 Foot and 1500 Horse, are not included. By Letters from Belgrade of the 26th past we have Advice, that the Cavalry which was at Semlin had been brought over the Save thither in Boats, and dispersed at some Leagues Distance for the Conveniency of Forage; that the Troops of the Camp of Vipalanka had that Day begun to pass likewise in Boats, till such Time as the Bridges were ready, the laying of which had been retarded by the overflowing of the Waters. It is said that the Intention of this Court is now to begin the Operations by the Siege of Nissa.

Copenhagen, July 9, N. S. It is certain that there is no Contagion to be apprehended from any Distemper actually reigning at Dantzick, and the extraordinary Mortality there seems now to be over: But that City draws so much of its necessary Provisions, as well as Merchandize from Poland, that the Magistrate is unwilling to take any Measures which may prove an Hindrance to that useful Trade; and as at this Time they are filling their Magazines with Wooll, Part of which is brought down from Cracow and that Neighbourhood where the Sickness is undoubtedly contagious, not only this Court, but many considerate People, even of Dantzick, believe the Danger of Infection to be greater now than it has been at any Time of late. The Quarantain is therefore still carefully looked to here, and Orders are just going to be dispatched to the Danish Resident at Lubeck, directing him to require that Magistracy to be upon their Guard with respect to Dantzick, and to admit no Persons nor Goods from thence without due Precautions. His Excellency M. Holstein, President of the Chamber of Finances, is appointed Master of the Court to her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, in the Room of M. Mosting, deceased; but he is to continue still in the Treasury, till the King can resolve upon a fit Person to supply that Post.

Hague, July 16, N. S. The States of Holland have this Day resumed their Assembly. The States General have at last come to a Resolution to make a Promotion of Officers, not of Generals, but of three Lieutenants General, four Majors General, and a proportionable Number of Brigadiers General; so that the Advancement of his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange to the Post of General of the Infantry, is still retarded. This Resolution has been sent to the respective Provinces for their Consent. M. Van Hoey, Ambassadour of the States General at the French Court, set out this Morning to return to Paris.

Whitehall, July 7, 1737.

Whereas in the Night between the Tenth and Eleventh Days of May last past, Seventy Seven Ash-Trees, belonging to Thomas Norton, of Ixworth, in the County of Suffolk, Esq; were, by Persons unknown, maliciously

[Price Four Pence.]

maliciously cut down and destroyed, Fifty five whereof were planted in a Vifto from the Mansion-house of the said Thomas Norton, commonly called Ixworth Abbey: And whereas also, in the Night between the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Days of the said Month, Fifteen Popular Trees, belonging to the said Thomas Norton, were sawn down and destroyed by Persons likewise unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering of the Persons concerned in the Crime aforesaid, is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof

HOLLES NEW ASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, I do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in cutting down and destroying the said Trees, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall receive a Reward of Twenty Guineas on such Conviction.

Tho. Norton.
